

VOLUNTEERING, JOBS AND OTHER SUMMER ACTIVITIES

VOLUNTEERING

Need volunteer hours?

← Click here to check out opportunities offered by LA Works

JOBS

Looking for a summer job?

Check out the LA County Youth Jobs Program

← Click here for details

For work permits:

LAUSD office DTLA

333 South Beaudry Avenue, LA CA 90017

Mon, Wed, Fri 1pm to 5pm, enter on 4th st.

Click here → for parking instructions

ESCUELA AZTLAN
Escuela Aztlan is a youth organizing, activism, and community ethnic studies project led by educators and youth organizers from South Central LA. The goal of the program is to develop more cultural and critical consciousness among young people in our communities.

JOIN US!
scan here to register

SCAN ME

Register by June 11, 2020
Kick-off session
June 13, 2020 at 10:00am

Visit our social media platforms for more information and to register
@EscuelaAztlanLA
<https://www.facebook.com/EscuelaAztlanLA>
supported by the following neighborhood councils

Artist, Art Enthusiasts and the Community

Escuela Aztlan focused on young people learning about identity, community, culture and art starting June 13th.

Six-week program, meetings once a week, free to everyone including free materials.

← Click here to register.

LOS ANGELES PUBLIC LIBRARY

TEENS OF LA FILM FEST

ACCEPTING SUBMISSIONS
MAY 18-JUNE 19

VISIT
LAPL.ORG/
TEEN-FILM-FESTIVAL
FOR DETAILS

FILM BUFFS

Submit a short film to LAPL's Teens of LA Film Fest by July 6th in these categories:

Book trailer (30-90 secs)

Public Service Announcement (30-90 secs)

Experimental (1-5 minutes)

Short film (3-8 minutes)

Documentary (3-8 minutes)

Oral history (2-5 minutes)

← click here for more details

CAP
CALARTS
COMMUNITY ARTS PARTNERSHIP

CALArts SUMMER WORKSHOPS

Workshops in graphic design, writing, design, photography and more

← click here for more informations and registration details

ONLINE SUMMER PROGRAMS

LOS ANGELES PUBLIC LIBRARY SUMMER PROGRAMS

Lots of awesome virtual programs streaming online at LAPL all summer long, among them: arts and crafts, author visits, read alouds and storytime, STEM

and STEAM, health and wellness

← click here for a schedule